MESSAGE

I am happy to know that the Plastic Export Promotion Council is holding the Export Award function on 26th September 2003 in Mumbai wherein top exporters in the field for the last two years will be felicitated.

I am glad to learn that The Plastics Export Promotion Council or PLEXCONCIL as is popularly known is felicitating its top exporters for the years 2001-2002 & 2002-2003 at its biennial Export Award Function in Mumbai on 26th September, 2003. I extend my heartiest congratulations to all the Award Winners who have put in their best efforts to bring foreign exchange through exports.

Plastic industry is one of the fastest growing industries of India. I am glad to know that the industry is earning precious foreign exchange for the country. The industry should continue its good work to further strengthen its position in future also.

I congratulate all the exporters who have been felicitated for the years 2001-2002 and 2002-2003 and convey my best wishes to the Plastic Export Promotion Council in its endeavours.

MESSAGE

The Initiatives taken by PLEXCONCIL have resulted in the plastic industry, indeed a sunrise industry, almost crossing the one billion dollar mark in exports and exhibiting export growth rates higher than the export growth rate of India in general. I am sure that PLEXCONCIL will continue to continuously motivate its exporters and supplement their exports with the ultimate motive of increasing the share in the world markets.

On the occasion of their Export Award Function, I convey my best wishes to all the members of PLEXCONCIL and wish the function a grand success.

It gives me great pleasure to learn that the top exporters belonging to The Export Promotion Council or PLEXCONCIL will be honoured at an Export Award Function on September 26, 2003. I take this opportunity to congratulate all the top performers in the plastic industry in exports.

The plastics sector has a huge potential for exports. The exports from this sector are also growing steadily and finding their way to most countries round the globe. Even though the world share of this sector is small at present, I am sure that with all efforts put in by PLEXCONCIL and its members, we are poised to attain a respectable market Share in the future to come.

I convey my best wishes to PLEXCONCIL, its members particularly the Export Award winners and wish the function all success.

MESSAGE

On the occasion of the Annual Export Function of Plexconcll on 26th September, 2003. I congratulate the award winners and the members of Plexconcll for the excellent efforts put in by them in the field of plastic exports.

The growing importance of the role of Plexconcll amongst the exporting community can be gauged from the fact that the membership of Plexconcll has been increasing every year. It is also very encouraging to note that during this period, exports of Plexconcll increased from US$802.02 million to US$941.14 registering a growth rate of 17.33%.

Plexconcll is rendering excellent service to the exporters in plastics sector by way of arranging open house meets and interactive sessions with the various departments, hosting of buyer-seller meets, participation in international fairs and exhibitions and sponsoring of trade delegations.

With the support of Plexconcll, I hope its member-exporters will continue to scale new heights in global trade.

I wish all the best to member-exporters of Plexconcll in their future endeavours.

5th September, 2003

I am happy to learn that the Plastics Export Promotion Council is holding its Export Award Function on September 26, 2003. India's overall export performance has been exceptional in the recent past, despite intense global competition, uncertain world economic environment and a number of hurdles affecting market access of our industrial products in developed countries. Overall exports posted a broad based growth of over 19 per cent in Dollar terms in 2002-03. This rate is the second highest in the world next only to China, and hoists India's share in world trade to a high of 0.8 per cent. Besides, India's export basket is quite diversified. This is reflected in the success of sustained efforts on the part of plastic exporters who exported more than US Dollar one billion worth of plastic and linoleum products during 2002-03.

These awards are recognition of this significant achievement. The fundamental changes that have taken place in our foreign trade regime over the last decade coupled with the dynamism of all segments of our exporting community will help India achieve its target of one percent share in world trade in the medium term.

I wish you all success in your efforts.

I am glad to learn that the Plastics Export Promotion Council, Mumbai is organizing its Award Function on September 26, 2003 at Mumbai to honour top exporters in plastics industry for the years 2001-2002 and 2002-2003.

The plastics industry in India has made significant achievements over since its modest but promising beginning by commencing the production of polystyrene in 1957. Today the exports in this sector have touched the US$ one billion mark from just about half a billion US$ in 1998-99. I am glad to note that Indian plastics are exported to over 150 countries round the globe with USA, China, UAE, Turkey and Italy being the most prominent ones. This phenomenal growth has been made possible due to the developing plastic machinery sector coupled with matching developments in the petrochemicals sector.

These achievements couldn't have been possible but for the efforts of the 2000 strong Plexconcl members who are always in the process of creating an niche for themselves in the world markets.

I extend my heartiest congratulations to all the award winners and also acknowledge the efforts of all other exporters who have contributed to the significant export growth. I also wish Plexconcl, the organizers and all its members, continuing success in the future.

I am happy to learn that The Plastic Export Promotion Council is holding its "Export Award Function" on 26th Sept., 2003 to felicitate the top exporters of the sector for the years 2001-02 and 2002-03.

The EXIM Policy as well as our export strategy are now aiming at high rates of growth in export of value added goods and services from India on a sustained basis. As a result of the export friendly policy of the Government as well as the undoubted entrepreneurial ability of our exporters, we have been able to step up our exports in almost all sectors, including plastics. Such impressive growth rates in exports have been achieved in the face of not only slow down in expansion of global trade and stagnation in some of the major markets abroad but also against intense international competition. Our exporters deserve full credit for this.

I extend my heartiest congratulations to all the Award winners and wish them even greater success in the times to come. As far as DGFTT is concerned, we will continue to provide all support to our exporters to make them even more competitive in the international market. I also commend and wish The Plastic Export Promotion Council for felicitating the leading exporters in the sector by recognizing their efforts. My best wishes to the Council to keep up its good work.

MESSAGE

It is indeed a matter of great pleasure that the exports of plastic goods coming under the purview of Plexconcll have maintained a high level of growth over the last two years. This high growth rate has resulted in plastic exports from India touching an all time high of almost US $ one billion during 2002-03. This would not have been possible without the tireless efforts and innovative marketing strategies adopted by India's enterprising plastic manufacturers and exporters with the able support of Plexconcll. I would like to congratulate all the Award Winners who made such an achievement for this sector possible in the face of stiff international competition.

However, US $ one billion is still a very small share of the international trade in plastics. Therefore, the scope for increasing our plastics exports is enormous. Several innovative strategies have to be adopted to increase our market share in this sector. The on-going project of Plexconcll under the Market Access Initiative Scheme of the Department of Commerce to increase the market share of plastic consumer markets in USA is one such strategy. I wish Plexconcll and all its member-exporters great success in such initiatives, taking India's plastic exports to new highs.

Dear Shri Ramakrishnan,

September 12, 2003

I am happy to hear that the Plastic Export Promotion Council is organizing the Export Award on 26th September, 2003 in Mumbai. Besides being an occasion to felicitate the top exporters, this is also an event to inspire other exporters to excel and increase their exports. The Ministry of External Affairs would like to commend the Plastic Export Promotion Council for their active contribution to the promotion of our exports. We would like to offer the support of the Ministry as well as our Missions for the continued success of efforts of the Council.

Our congratulations may be conveyed to the Export Award winners. Best wishes for the success of the award ceremony.

Yours sincerely,

Citation presented to
Mr Mahesh Shah
Chairman
1999-2000 & 2000-2001

Mr Mahesh K Shah, a highly dynamic personality, assumed the Chairmanship of the Council for the periods 1999-2000 and 2000-2001. Mr Mahesh Shah got involved into the affairs of the Council when he was elected as the Member of the Committee of Administration in 1992-93. Ever since that time Mr Shah has been actively taking part in the Council's activities. His keen interest in export promotion and wide experience in the plastic industry earned him the position of the Vice Chairman of Council for the years 1997-1998 & 1998-1999 until he finally assumed the prestigious Chairman's office for the years 1999-2000 and 2000-2001.

Mr Mahesh Shah, born in 1950 in Mumbai, belongs to the renowned Shah & Motasha group – pioneers in the Artificial Leathercloth manufacturing business in India. He assumed the reins of this group as its Chairman at a young age of 33 after the demise of his father. As Chairman of this group, Mr Mahesh Shah steered the group to glory through diversification, forward and backward integration. He diversified by setting up facilities to manufacture two-metre width Cushion Vinyl Flooring and subsequently expanded into the four-metre Cushion Vinyl Flooring (for the first time in Asia) specially for servicing markets in the overseas.

Forward integration was resorted to by setting up group companies to manufacture automobile seats using artificial leathercloth, which are leading players in this field. The step towards backward integration was taken by setting up a unit manufacturing knitted fabrics which is used as an input for producing leathercloth.

The flagship company of the group, The National Leathercloth Manufacturing Company, manufacturing Artificial Leathercloth and Royal Cushion Vinyl Flooring Ltd, manufacturing Cushion Vinyl Flooring have bagged the Council's Export Award several times in the past.

Having gained a rich experience and insight into the plastics industry, Mr Mahesh Shah decided to offer his services and the benefits of his specialised experience to the plastics industry and thus got elected to the Committee of Administration of the Council in 1992-1993. During his tenure as the Chairman of the Council, he made it a point to attend all meetings convened by the Government of India. He was highly vocal in projecting the problems faced by the exporters and came out with novel and innovative ideas. He associated himself actively with the export promotion activities of the Council and made it a point to discuss various aspects in guiding the Council through the export activities by making the best use of his experiences. He strived hard to revive the product panels in the Council to come out with better product-specific export strategies.

By virtue of his also being the Managing Committee Member of the Federation of Indian Export Organisations or FIEO as is popularly known, the apex body of all Export Promotion Councils, Commodity Boards and Development Authorities, he attended most of FIEO Managing Committee Meetings. He involved himself actively with this apex body to ensure that the apex role is played more effectively.

During his tenure as the Council's Chairman, Mr Mahesh Shah was also nominated as the Council's nominee to the Plastindia Foundation in 2000 when he was also elected as its Vice President. He was one of the active office bearers of Plastindia Foundation who played one of the lead roles in ensuring that the Plastindia 2003, the largest plastics fair in the Asian region, was a grand success. The Plastics Export Promotion Council will cherish its association with Mr Mahesh Shah in his various capacities as the Member of its Committee of Administration, its Vice Chairman and finally the highest position as the Chairman for time immemorial and looks forward to his association with the Council in the future to come.

In recognition of his excellent contributions and selfless service of building the Indian plastic industry and its exports, the Council honours Mr Mahesh Shah with this citation at the hands of Mr S B Mookherjee, the Honourable Minister of State for Commerce & Industry, Government of India on this 26th day of September 2003 in Mumbai.
